

Announcer/Producer-Allegheny Mountain Radio

An Announcer/Producer for Allegheny Mountain Radio reports directly to the AMR Program Director. An AMR Announcer/Producer, along with the Program Director is a critical part of defining the sound of AMR. An Announcer/Producer may need an exceptional knowledge of music, advanced live and or recorded production skills and. or a desire to participate in or reflect the lives of local residents. An AMR Announcer/Producer must be self-directed, motivated and willing to work anti-social hours.

Primary responsibilities of an AMR Announcer/Producer may include all of part but are not limited to the following:

- Host and/ or produce regularly scheduled air-shift/programs.
 - Produce long and /or short form features reflecting topics of interest to the region.
 - Participate in all aspects of on-air fundraising
 - Represent AMR to various outside organizations and at regional events
 - Prepare reports as required
 - Participate in remote broadcast
 - Other duties as assigned by the Program Director.
